LLOYD GEORGE IS THREATENED; MACSWINEY AT DEATH'S DOOR

Scotland Yard Takes Precautions To Guard Life of English Premier.

KIDNAPPING ALSO FEARED

Sinn-Fein Sympathizers, Under Suspicion, Are Shadowed By Detectives.

BY EARLE C. REEVES

LONDON, Sept. 1.—As Torrence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, returned on the borderland to death in prison jail today, Scotland Yard entered into intense activities to meet the menace of assassination which hangs over Premier Lloyd George and other members of the cabinet.

MacSwiney still lives, thanks to his wonderful vitality, but it was declared that his death may come at any minute. A bulletin issued at 11 o'clock bore the brief announcement:

"Conditions unchanged."

Officials of Scotland Yard are going through the most anxious period in the history of England. It is understood that Premier Lloyd George takes seriously the threats against his life for his refusal to liberate Lord Mayor MacSwiney and is overlooking no precaution in his vacation retreat at Lucerne.

A special body guard has been sent to Switzerland to protect the premier. The "uninformed" police are operating to protect the lives of members of the government and save government property from destruction.

Double guards have been thrown around the White Hall district where the government buildings are located. Members of the cabinet who are in the country on vacations have been warned to exercise caution. Detectives have been detailed to guard them upon their return to London.

Sinn-Fein sympathizers suspected of violent intentions have been "ticked" and are constantly shadowed by the most expert detectives in London.

Even the children of the members of the cabinet are being guarded against attempted kidnappings.

Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, who went to Luserna to consult with the premier was flanked by secret government agents throughout the whole trip to protect his life.

A dispatch from Geneva says that Albert Courvaux, who was arrested for sending a death threat to Premier Lloyd George in a telegram, told the court he did not intend to kill the premier, but only to frighten him into releasing MacSwiney.

It is not known scripturally as the New Year. In the Scriptures it is termed the "Day of the Memorial of the Blowing of the Trumpet" (Leviticus XXIII:24), or simply as the "Day of the Blowing of the Trumpet" (Numbers XXIII:1).

The nature of the festival is what

HARDING WILL DISCUSS LABOR BEFORE MARION CROWD MONDAY

Republican Nominee Will Present His Labor Record At Labor Day Celebration.

WEDNESDAY, A REST DAY

Governors Who Are Guests Tuesday Give Assurances of G. O. P. Victory.

By GEORGE R. HOLMES.

MARION, Sept. 1.—Having enunciated in the past week his position on two campaign factors, the league of nations' issue and the reclamation program, Senator Warren G. Harding will next turn his attention to the important subject of labor.

Steadily pursuing the policy of dealing with one matter at a time, Senator Harding will on Monday deliver a labor address to the "home folks" of Marion. The address will be a part of the local celebration of Labor day at a park, and on the same program will be a speaker for the Plumb Plan league.

Senator Harding has not mentioned labor policies since his speech of acceptance, and his speech next Monday is regarded as one of the big ones of the Republican campaign.

The senator has declined to comment thus far on the action of the American Federation of Labor in expecting that in his labor speech he will answer the federation's indirect attack on his labor record.

Encouraging reports on the political situation in various states were brought to Senator Harding by the governors who participated in yesterday's celebration. Without exception, the Republican executives declared that their respective states will be found in the G. O. P. column in November.

Senator Harding planned a quiet

Referendum Vote Taken By Trade; Will Announce Results from N. B. O. P. Headquarters Here Next Week.

Results of the referendum vote being taken by the sanitary pottery trade to rescind the action adopted at the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters' convention at Atlantic City to submit all proposals to a referendum vote, will be announced next week from Brotherhood headquarters here, it was announced Wednesday.

Returns from subsidiary locals affiliated with the sanitary branch of the N. B. O. P. are already coming in to Brotherhood office here and it is expected that the last ballots will be received before the middle of next week.

Results of the referendum vote will likely determine whether the usual wage conference with the United States Sanitary Manufacturers' association will be held this fall. The manufacturers, it is said, have refused to go into conference with the workers' committee unless the trade conferees are delegated full powers to consummate an agreement.

Previous to the July convention of the N. B. O. P. at Atlantic City it had been the custom of the sanitary trade to vest the conference committee of the Brotherhood with full powers to enter into new agreements with the labor committee of the manufacturers' association. This power was withdrawn by a resolution adopted at the convention and a provision made that all matters affecting the trade in general be submitted to a referendum vote.

The biennial wage scale between the sanitary tradesmen and the manufacturers will expire Nov. 1, this year. More than 3,000 sanitary potters in the United States are affected by the scale.

BELFAST RIOTS RAGING TODAY

7,000 Homeless As Result of Fighting—Boycott Alarming to Business.

By DANIEL O'CONNELL.

BELFAST, Sept. 1.—Beneath skies darkened by the smoke of raging conflagrations, fighting continued in Belfast today. Five more deaths have occurred, bringing the fatality list up to 26 since last Saturday evening. A civilian was shot to death by a military patrol for violation of the curfew order.

Another civilian died of wounds received in street fighting Monday. A soldier of the Cameron Highlanders was accidentally killed.

A pitched battle broke out during the morning when Sinn Feiners attacked a train bearing ship workers to the ship yards. Soldiers were rushed to the scene and fired a volley, quelling the fighting.

Many more fires have broken out despite the heavy troop patrols and there was further looting.

It is estimated that 7,000 persons are homeless. Joseph Devlin, M. P., is fitting up Catholic clubs to be used as hotels for refugees. Evictions of the Sinn Fein sympathizers are continuing.

Business circles are becoming alarmed over the boycott of Belfast by South Ireland. Depositors from South Ireland are reported to be drawing large sums from Ulster province banks. The directors fear that the diminution of bank accounts caused by the recent fighting, will bring the community to the verge of bankruptcy.

The strife spread to Southfield, where a Unionist mob attacked the Sinn Feiners, killing a man.

Miss Beatrice Kelly of Steubenville has been named representative of the Eighteenth Ohio congressional district on the new Democratic women's central committee for Ohio.

WHITE FAILS TO ENLIGHTEN COMMITTEE IN SENATE PROBE

Democratic Leader Says Cox Can Furnish Proof of Big G. O. P. Fund.

NEW YORK MAN TO TESTIFY

Asserts That Democratic Fund Will Not Be In Excess of $2,000,000.

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 1.—Chairman George White of the Democratic national committee took the stand first when the senate "slush fund" subcommittee resumed its investigation today but failed throughout his testimony to give the investigators any information tending to confirm Governor Cox's charges of a $15,000,000 Republican campaign fund.

Chairman White was questioned by Senator Spencer and Senator McKay on each of the charges made by Governor Cox but he told the committee that as far as he knew Governor Cox was the only man who had any evidence to support them.

Under questioning White said he met Governor Cox Sunday last and the governor gave him no evidence to submit to the committee.

Questioned further, White related the following conversation with Governor Cox:

"Are you sure of your ground, Governor?"

"The governor said he was, and I replied, 'that's enough for me.'"

Chairman White, in effect, admitted the publishing in New York of an interview by W. B. Jamieson, financial director of the Democratic national committee in which plans of a $10,000,000 Democratic campaign fund were discussed but stated he did not approve of the interview.

White then told the committee he estimated not more than $2,000,000 would be necessary for the Democratic campaign.

"Are you aware that $2,300,000 was spent in 1916?" asked Senator Spencer.

"I don't want to seem to reflect on former managements," White replied, "but I think $2,000,000 will be enough."

Pressed for a list of salaries of officers of the Democratic committee, White answered it had only a "skeleton organization at present," and he could give no information.

White was asked how many speakers the Democratic national committee contemplated.

"I was asked by Senator Harrison of the speakers' bureau what his budget would be," White replied, "and I told him we would have to get together on that. I said I would take the responsibility of paying him $10,000."

Referring again to the Cox charges Senator Spencer asked:

"Do you know of any sinister influence, financial or industrial, trying to make a continuance of profiteering?"

Unauthorized Tie-Up of Anthracite Coal Industry In Pennsylvania.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Sept. 1.—An unauthorized tie-up of the anthracite industry got under way today when early reports indicated that 35,000 mine workers failed to report for work in various sections. The Wyoming division of the Lehigh Valley Coal company was most seriously crippled, the Stanton Colliery being completely tied and other collieries forced to operate with a fifty per cent of their normal working forces. The Susquehanna Collieries company was also hard hit, seven collieries in number nine district being idle. The Red Ash Coal company was crippled and reports from the upper end of district No. 1, are that coal companies are working with a greatly depleted force.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Sept. 1.—The anthracite miners strike which began yesterday in Lansford and Williamsport districts spread to this district today. A large number of miners joined the strikers who declared the entire Schuylkill district will be idle when the insurgents call is made.

Lease Commercial Hotel.

Smallwood and Low, the pulp stone quarry men, after buying a half dozen houses to furnish homes for the men whom they are bringing here to work, have taken over the lease of the Commercial hotel and will use that to accommodate workmen, establishing a regular boarding house.

Accept Positions Here.

A dozen or more girls from East Palestine have come to Lisbon to work in the R. Thomas and company pottery. Never in the history of Lisbon has there been such a demand for men and women to work in the shops and factories. In addition to the several new industries established recently, the old concerns are expanding and a number of local coal mines are being opened in the Lisbon district, which makes an additional demand for labor.

Seeks Additional Money.

Prof. J. W. Moore, county superintendent of schools, has put in an application to the county commissioners to have the surplus money from last year's dog fund transferred to the county board of education. The surplus amount to $2,538. The humane society of Salem has an application in for an extra allowance which is wanted to buy watering troughs for that city.

its name signifies, a marking of the passage of time and a monument of the uncertain tenure of human life. It does not commemorate any historical incident. Nor does it make its appeal to the racial consciousness of the Jews. Its appeal is entirely to the present and to the individual conscience. It is thoroughly universalistic and can be responded to by all, religiously of whatever creed.

The day is observed seriously and solemnly. It emphasizes the sense of divine guidance and, at the same time, of human responsibility. The blowing of the trumpet, the Shofar or ram's horn, is the peculiar service of the day. It is the bugle call of the spirit, arousing the conscience in the contemplation of mispent hours, and awakening the impulse to make the new, coming year more fruitful of noble and unselfish action.

possible under a Republican administration?"

"Not except through Governor Cox's Pittsburgh address, White said, and I have found Governor Cox always able to prove his word," he added.

"Can you give us any indication as to where we can get that information?" "Governor Cox."

"Except through Governor Cox you know nothing you can submit."

"No. Governor Cox has got it all together."

Chairman White then told the committee that the evidence introduced yesterday about "that so-called nes' book" furnished a clue to substantiate the charge that influential people are trying to purchase an "underhold" on the government.

"That is the only evidence you know of yourself," Senator Spencer asked, "the evidence of a book which the Albany Journal and Mr. Barnes has published or is contemplating publishing?"

"That is all I know of," White said.

"One of the books was given to Wilbur Marsh and he understands the case and will present it."

W. B. Jamieson, author of the New York interview on the $100,000 "Democratic fund arrangements," arrived in Chicago today and was to appear before the committee late this afternoon.

"Have you indicated to us, Mr. White," Senator Spencer continued, "all the evidence that you know of, and yourself in connection with the book or the list of the Albany Journal publication?"

"I have," White replied.

"Have you information that would indicate there was any desire on the part of those who gave their checks to the Republican national committee or to the Republican party that they will and their desire shall have behind them, in any industrial controversy, the bayonets of their puppet of government?" Senator Spencer asked.

"I have not," White again answered.

COX TO DECIDE CAMPAIGN PLAN

Plans to Keep "Enemy on Defensive" in His Swing To the Pacific Coast.

COLUMBUS, Sept. 1.—Gov. James M. Cox, Democratic presidential nominee, has determined upon a definite plan of political strategy, it was learned today, and during his swing to the Pacific coast and back which begins Thursday night, will adhere to it without variation.

"Keep the enemy always on the defensive," is the governor's plan of campaign, briefly summed up, and those closest to his counsels say that in determining upon it, the Democratic candidate was inspired by a lifelong admiration for Napoleon, and a serious study of the emperor's achievements.

"In every speech I make from now until November," the governor said, "I shall continue hammering away at them. My revelations have not yet even started."

When the "slush fund" charges have been elaborated upon to the governor's satisfaction, the attack will be continued in another direction. The hatred of Italy, he will contend, was invited by our action in the Fiume situation; that of Germany, by opposition to proposed easier terms and that of Jugoslavia by the stand taken with regard to Dalmatia.

PREDICT DECREASE IN SUGAR PRICES

With eastern refiners still slashing sugar prices, retail price of the commodity in the East Liverpool district may drop still lower, it was predicted Wednesday.

One of the leading New York refiners made a new cut in sugar prices today to the basis of 16 cents a pound for fine granulated, or a cent under the level quoted by other refiners, or about 8 cents a pound below highest prices reached during the early summer.

Continued weakness in raws on the increased competition from outside sources, as well as an almost entire lack of demand for refined, furnished the chief reason for present weakness. Second-hand sugars have for some time past been filling the small demand from grocery houses. The best bid for Cuban raw sugar today was 8 cents a pound, cost and freight, which compares with figures made only a few months ago as high as 23 cents.

BIG SHORTAGE IS DISCOVERED

Money Amounting to $100,000 Found Missing In Accounts of Bond Salesman

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—Auditors today are still checking the accounts of Basil P. Edwards, a bondsalesman formerly employed by the Chicago Trust company, and a shortage of $70,000 has been uncovered. The shortage, accountants say, may now reach $100,000.

Edwards has disappeared and, according to Miss Lucile Morley, his fiancée, has gone to South America. Police and detective agencies are prosecuting an international search.

Edwards had been employed by the Chicago Trust company for ten years, save for a period of two years when he served in the navy during the war, and had earned the sobriquet of the "world's greatest bond salesman."

He was discharged in May after the firm had had occasion to question some of his transactions.

In order to establish a record, it is declared, Edwards sold bonds at less than cost, paying the loss out of his own pocket and in order to recoup, giving his personal receipts for thousands of dollars, promising to deliver the bonds later. It was when customers began to present these receipts that his speculations were discovered.

ARMORED CARS IN OPERATION

Striking Employees of Rapid Transit Meet to Consider Settlement.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Striking employees of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company today voted in a mass meeting not to return to work while attempts are being made to settle their differences with the company. The men were in session behind closed doors from 10 o'clock until almost 1 o'clock.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—While the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company began operation of "armored" surface cars today in an effort to break the strike a mass meeting of the striking employees was to be held at 10 a. m., to consider immediate settlement of the dispute over hours and wages.

Hopes were not high that the meeting would result in the men going back to work at once, although Mayor Hylan, who persuaded the strikers to hold the meeting, believed a start toward settlement might be made. Federal Judge Julius M. Mayer, who under the B. R. T. receivership dominates the situation has yielded to unconditional arbitration of working conditions but insists upon his right to review any arbitration award regarding wages.

Trolley cars which left the car barns in Flatbush today had heavy screen protecting the windows, while policemen rode on the platforms.

Elevated and subway train service was slightly improved but the majority of Brooklynites still were greatly delayed in reaching their work, thousands depending on motor transport.

After the "armored" cars had been sent out, other surface cars, unprotected by screens, but carrying policemen, were put into operation. The line opened this morning was patrolled by hundreds of policemen.

Two men, one a motorman, who were injured by missiles hurled by strike sympathizers were reported to be dying this morning.

INDIANA MAN HORSE WHIPPED

Enraged Yman Lashes Daughter's Ince Before Large crowd.

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—H. R. Daniel, 50 years old, horse-whipped bridegroom, and Mrs. Sarah Cooper-Daniel, his 20-year-old daughter, are recuperating today at the home of Daniel's sister, Mrs. C. C. Sier at Decatur, Ind., from their exciting experiences in Chicago yesterday. Daniel, who is secretary of W. Straus and company, New York, was married to Miss Cooper late yesterday after a thrilling elopement with an unusual and painful climax.

The bridegroom is nursing a lacerated face which he received when Mrs. Charles M. Cooper of Indianapolis, now a mother-in-law, lashed him with whip in the crowded waiting room of the Union station where he had just been tenderly greeted by his young bride-to-be.

"The marriage was precipitated," Daniel said today, "by Mrs. Cooper's action. When the trouble started we realized that the only thing to do was get married right away—so we did. We had been engaged more than a year."

"I know," he continued ruefully rubbing his cheek, "there aren't many fellows with a mother in law like mine."

Ms. Cooper, however, is not reconciled today to her new son-in-law. "I whipped him good," she said, "I gave him no more than he deserved, the scoundrel. He is not the kind of a man we wanted our daughter to marry."

Olive Thomas Coming to the American in a New Selznick Play

How little Irish immigrant girl broke the cast of a Broadway musical and converted some of the merest souls into real human beings in "Derling Mine," the latest Selznick Picture starring Olive Thomas, will be shown for two days being Thursday at the American theatre.

As an interpreter of life behind the scenes, Olive Thomas, for all of her five feet, 11 inches, is head and shoulders above most stars of the silver sheet. She has made the make-believe landing the footlights seem real to those who never thought that there were hearts and heartaches, romances and tragedies in stage and screen.

Her characterizations have been perfectly cut. And as Kitty the little wispy girl with the sod of Erin still in her laces, she is once more a little elf. She brings a breath of innocence to a realm of soap and—wins a sweetheart.

REPAIRS URGED AT PUMPHOUSE

Engineer, Following Inspection, Estimates Cost At $5,200.

Worn out machinery now in use at the Vellsville water work station can be repaired at an cost approximately $5,200, it was estimated by city officials today.

Owing to the fact that the boilers at the pump station have decreased to a great extent in efficiency the past year they are incapable of sustaining more than 100 pounds of pressure in the city mains. The water from the river is now being pumped directly into the mains for city use. For emergency cases, such as a fire, however, the reservoir has been filled and can be cut into the mains on short notice.

Recently council authorized the employment of a capable engineer to inspect the pump house equipment. The inspection was completed here several days ago, it was announced today, and estimates place the cost of repair work at a little over $5,000. Repair work is thought advisable at the present time because of the fact that it would require at least $11,000, it is claimed, to install new equipment.

The repair work at the pump house will be one of the first steps, it is likely, in connection with the installation of the new system for obtaining water for the city, advised by Mayor Ingram. May Ingram will present his theory to council at its next meeting.

"BIG BROTHERS" TAKE UP QUARREL—SATISFIED

Oscar Spears and Roxie Pignatore of this city, each aged about 27 years, both in the light heavyweight class, battled thirty minutes in a two-round bout last night which had its inception near the corner of Twelfth and Commerce streets.

The bout was not advertised, but was carried on under cover of twilight until interrupted by the police. The first round was staged on the street. The second round occurred in police headquarters.

According to testimony advanced by Pignatore and Spears in the hearing in police court following the battle the younger brothers of the two men had quarreled. Their differences were taken up by their "big brothers," challenge was issued by Pignatore, say the police, and the battle resulted.

The two men while in conflict were surrounded by a large crowd. There was no interference until the police stepped into the scene. Both were well battered up, while Pignatore, the possessor of a large knot of head. Both were very amiable, taken into police court. "I'm satisfied," said Pignatore and Spears, pressed a similar sentiment.

When Mayor Ingram announced that each man was to be fined $10 and younger brothers stepped in and over the money. All four the city hall as friends.

LAKE BUSINESS BREAKS RECORD

Passenger and Freight Lines Have Biggest Trade In History This Year.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 1.—Passenger and package freight lines on the Great Lakes this season will have the biggest business in their history, according to estimates of local vessel men.

The total net tonnage in bituminous and anthracite coal, iron ore, stone and grain carried by lake freighters, however, they said, will again fall about 23,000,000 tons behind the banner year of 1918. The record was then placed at 114,614,018 net tons. This year's total in these lines is expected to just about equal last year's 91,761,729 net tons.

Officials of passenger boat lines on Lake Erie say the great increase in their business is due to the railroads inability to handle the volume of business offered them and because of lack of passenger and freight cars, strikes and embargoes. To these same causes is attributed to the decrease in freight tonnage under what had been planned for.

Other lines report similar increases in passenger and package freight, also in tourist and tourist automobile travel. Not only are the lake lines carrying local freight between ports, officials say, but they also report a big increase in freight for points adjacent to lake ports, the freight being forwarded by trucks and electric lines to points of destination.

It is estimated that approximately 500 Great Lakes vessels engaged in transportation of coal and iron ore will handle 50,000,000 tons of iron ore and 25,000,000 net tons of bituminous coal in 1920.

Annually use these tablets of organic iron—Nuxated Iron—to build up red blood, strength and endurance.

Dr. H. B. Vail, formerly Physician in the Baltimore Hospital and a Medical Examiner says: "There are thousands whose bodies are aging and breaking down at a time when they should be enjoying their perfect health which carries defiance to disease simply because they are not awake to the condition of their blood. By allowing it to remain thin, pale and watery they are not giving the natural life force of the body a chance to do their work. Iron is red blood and red blood is life. Nuxated Iron comes in better than any other iron preparation. It builds the red blood corpuscles and helps to give increased power to the blood than organic iron—Nuxated Iron." Nuxated Iron comes in tablet form and does not contain any ordinary metallic iron but only the finest quality of pre-digested organic iron which is easily assimilated by the blood.

A GOOD TARGET

The German battleship Ostfriesland, now on exhibition in New York harbor, is attracting much attention. That helpless giant, brought across the Atlantic by the United States navy and exhibited, like a tame tiger, under the same navy's auspices, is a vivid reminder of who lost the war and who won it. It preaches a mute but eloquent sermon on the folly of trying to conquer the world. It shows, more clearly than a thousand lectures or editorials could, the collapse of German sea power.

The Ostfriesland is not going to be kept by the United States. We have plenty of better battleships. Besides, by agreement of the allied powers, it is marked for destruction within a year, along with the rest of the fighting craft that the Germans failed to scuttle at Scapa Flow after their surrender.

There is talk of towing it out into the Atlantic and using it as a target for American gunners to practice on. That is an excellent use for a German battleship. It would partly make amends for Germany's failure to give the American navy any such practice during the war.

WRANGEL AND THE MOUJIKS

The Russian moujik or peasant has played but a small part as yet in the Russian revolution. When the revolution broke, he merely grabbed the land he had been cultivating and hung onto it. He stands pat, and asks only to be let alone. If that were all, he could be ignored. But he is a majority of the Russian people, and in the long run, the minority cannot live without him.

The Lenine-Trotsky regime is finding that out, to its worry and peril. The factory workers and government employees are ill-fed, and it is hard to get food for the army. The peasants do not like to sell food to the cities if they have it, for the Soviet money is no good to them. They will not raise food for anybody they dislike—and they dislike the whole Bolshevik group.

They do not necessarily like the enemies of Bolshevism. Denikine, who for a time made such headway against the Soviet armies, failed because he disregarded and despised the peasants instead of cultivating their friendship. A letter written him by Gen. Wrangel, on the occasion of the latter's dismissal, and recently published, makes that clear. Denikine could win victories in the field, but when he had won territory he had no support from the rural population, and provisions were withheld from him. So his victorious armies melted away.

Wrangel is wiser. He cultivates the peasants, and is trusted by them. That fact is probably the most hopeful thing about him, and one of the big reasons why France gave him recognition. Though moving from slight beginnings, controlling as yet but a small segment in the Crimea, if he can win the active support of the peasant population he may eventually sweep all Russia.

THE TRANS-CONTINENTAL CRUISE

A motor camping trip of 6,000 miles without a night spent in a hotel is the record made by a Los Angeles physician.

The doctor packed his wife and children into his touring car, loaded a rubber tired trailer with cots, cooking utensils, tents and other camping paraphernalia, and away they went on their land cruise which took them from the West to the East, over the Rockies and through the Berkshires and Adirondacks, and up into Maine, then back home.

It was a vacation which the most luxurious traveler might envy them. They saw sights lost to the view of the swifter traveler or the one who follows only railways or main traveled roads. They had plenty of good, wholesome food, cooked, served and eaten out of doors, with all that implies fun and informality and good appetite. And they traveled over an area and did an amount of sight-seeing which would cost so much in the usual way of trains and hotels as to be entirely prohibited to the family of ordinary means.

The world is full of sensible people doing wholesome, interesting things that are not costly and are good fun. The pity is that more people do not avail themselves of their opportunities for this sort of recreation. All kinds of ills an dfamily quarrels and financial crashes could be saved if they would.

PRACTICE FOR RESERVE AVIATORS

The government has made arrangements which enable airmen holding commissions in the Officers' Reserve Corps to continue their flying practice at certain fields known as active flying fields. The purpose is to avoid the loss of knowledge and skill gained during the war training.

It is a purely voluntary matter, left entirely to the former aviator's choice, but it is more than likely that a great many of the commissioned flyers who are near enough to an active field will want to avail themselves of the opportunity to keep up their flying and to make further progress in the "air game."

Any reserve officer who wishes to avail himself of this opportunity should secure an identification book from the director of army air service in Washington, and then communicate with the commander of the field, arranging for a time when planes will be available. This plan is already in operation at Carlstrom Field in Florida; Kelly Field, Texas; Langley Field, Va.; March Field and Mather Field, Calif.; Mitchel Field, N. Y.; Post Field, Fort Sill and Bolling Field, Washington, D. C.

Incentive to keep up their flying practice will be offered to reserve aviators by flying contests conducted from time to time by the army. The pleasure of mastering the flying game will probably be sufficient incentive for most of the daring Americans who chose aviation as their branch of military service.

Wonder how the gods on Olympus like those American athletes. Ponzis' company wasn't the first one in which stock subscriptions were used to pay dividends on previous subscriptions, nor will it be the last.

NEW YORK LETTER

By O. O. McIntyre.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Night life on this gay island is not dead. As Haywood Brown, the bright chronicler of the Tribune, remarks night life is plainly cut in two, though it still wiggles. Massive back doors are unchained for those who know the town. And the single drink is unpurchasable but it may be purchased by the quart.

Joel's in Forty-first street used to be a meeting place for the midnight sons who breakfast at sundown. Joel's is still running, but with nothing stronger than 2.75 it fails to present the usual flair. The big room still holds the pictures of Mrs. George Cabot Lodge and Mrs. Stanley Mortimer and a score of others who probably were never there in their lives.

The side wall to the right still boasts "Joel's stinks are the talk of New York." Perhaps it isn't true any more. Since that sign went up there has been a war and a movement for a league of nations and Babe Ruth has made forty-four home runs.

The old familiar postcards which used to be on every table are gone. "Joel's," so the caption ran, is the home of artists, actors and newspaper men—the most lovable folk in the world." Joel loved them, but not enough to blind him to their weaknesses. The left wall bore the sign: "To avoid mistakes, patrons will kindly pay for refreshments after each service." This still endures, as does Joel's message to actors on the road who are invited to "Send your money to me and I will keep it for you."

Even in the old days people did not come to Joel's only to drink. There was Harry Lang, which is not his name, who would sit up until 4 or 5 every morning and order sarsaparilla every time. He had reason to be timorous about alcohol. About 5 o'clock one morning he said, as doggedly as ever "Bring me another bottle of sarsaparilla." It would have been his twenty-fifth, but the waiter told him the last bottle was gone. "I've done my best," said Lang dolefully. "Bring me a highball." And after that evening nobody—not even his employer—saw him again for a week.

These days are gone. But good fellows still gather in apartment houses and in clubs and with a kind-faced bootlegger on call they manage to struggle through the long night with plenty of false happiness.

Broadway is filled with gossip about the huge fortunes which have been acquired in the liquor traffic. Whether the rumors have any foundation in fact or not I do not know, but Broadway believe that there are some revenue officers who are profiting prodigiously. There is the story of a well known man about town who was sent to an illicit dealer to get brandy.

"How much do you want?" asked the dealer.

"Two cases," replied the man.

"I'll give you a case of brandy and a case of gin," said the dealer. "I'm a revenue officer, and I know a place where there are twelve cases. When I get orders for the whole lot I'll go and confiscate it."

At 5 o'clock they came out to Broadway with their tired, shadowed eyes, rouged cheeks and carmine lips. I have watched them and they seem almost to shudder as they turn into the crowded street. Then they begin the eternal scanning of coarse faces for a half-smile or some light of recognition that may lead to an acquaintance and dinner. They are so pathetically young and frail—and yet their expressions are hard.

And most of them have the hacking cough of the inveterate cigarette smoker, others the nervous twitching of the drug addict. Only a few years, so statistics show, that most of them came from the cool-shaded and quiet village streets.

COUNTY BOARD WILL KEEP TAB ON ROAD WORK

Contractors On Various Jobs
Are Not Following Specifications, Claim.

INSPECTIONS ARE PLANNED
Scarcity of Material is Holding Up Completion of the Lincoln Highway.

By M. K. Zimmerman

LISBON, Aug. 31.—County Commissioners have discovered that some new road work in Columbiana county is not being done according to specifications. In other words, where four inches of concrete is called for, two and one half inches is being "run."

Commissioner Patrick McNeel lifted the lid on one job and took a peep inside. Other commissioners were informed. An inspector on the job seemingly had been unable to detect the "slight" in the job. County Engineer Herman C. Armstrong has ordered one of the county deputy engineers on the job. Commissioners declare they will inspect this particular job twice weekly, and if work is not up to specifications the contractor will be required to "go over" the job.

It has also been indicated to one contractor now working in this county that "there are two ends to a string," and that the money end is in the hands of the commissioners.

All has not been going well on the California Hollow job north of East Liverpool. A closer inspection is to be kept on this contract by the commissioners themselves.

"If work isn't done right we'll see that it is gone over," the commissioners say.

"Hereafter every road job under contract in this county is to be inspected at least twice weekly. Contractors are not to be advised in advance when commissioners will go out in these trips.

Completion of the improvement of the Wellsville road south of West Point has been held up. There is no labor.

"Vacationists" from Wellsville had been dorking on this job. When these folk decided to apply for railroad employment, the county lost a lot of men. A new force is being recruited, but the task is a rather slow one.

Any one wanting a job can get it for the asking.

By Wednesday night concrete will have been poured to within 400 feet of West Point on the Lincoln highway on the road south of Gilmore's Stop. The road will be allowed to "dry" for two weeks and will then be opened to traffic, this in time for the Lisbon Fair traffic.

Not enough material is on the ground now to proceed with concrete surfacing between West Point to and across Browns bridge to the end of the brick pavement just north of Madison church.

Delivery of sand and gravel from East Liverpool has been somewhat tardy of late.

Following the Lisbon fair, it is believed that the reserve supply of concrete, sand and gravel will be sufficient to continue the surfacing of the Lincoln Highway at this point. However, county commissioners announce November 1.

Middletown township trustees want a new road from Rogers and Negley. If county commissioners will finance the proposition the trustees are willing to put a nominal levy on the tax duplicate to reimburse the county insofar as the share of the township is concerned.

The whole deal was threshed out here Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. No decision was reached. Both sides are anxious to go ahead with the work. It will cost between $33,000 and $50,000 to finish the job. Some details remain to be worked out by the Middletown trustees. They will confer with the commissioners probably next Monday. The trustees have some money available. They can obtain more. Commissioners will give their share. Assessments are to be levied. It looks as if the improvement would be started within a very little while.

Manufacturers of tar surfacing who have not been living up to contracts are to be hauled over the coals by the commissioners. Time for excuses has past. Manufacturers who have delivery contracts for this county will be asked to show their hand, otherwise it is likely that other measures will be adopted to obtain results on road work in this county.

CANADIAN CELEBRATES HIS 94TH BIRTHDAY

MONTREAL, Que., Sept. 1.—The Canadian ever employed by the Hudson's Bay Company, Colin Rankin, who rose from clerk to chief factor of the company, has just celebrated his 94th birthday.

For more than half a century Rankin served with the company whose history is so intimately linked with Canada. He was 22 years old when he was engaged by Hector Mackenzie, then chief factor of the upper Ottawa Mackenzie was impressed by the work of young Rankin during a rush of trading with the Indians and shattered tradition by engaging a Canadian instead of bringing all office staff and staff members from England.

Gus Hill's Minstrels Scoring Big Hit

That the old-time minstrel show, the most popular form of theatrical amusement a few years ago, still retains the power to attract is quite evident by the capacity houses that are greeting Gus Hill's Minstrels en route. This famous organization will appear at the Ceramic theatre, Saturday, Sept. 4, matinee and night. The company includes America's leading exponents of burnt cork fun and they not only reproduce all of the old charm of such a show, but also new novelties presented by capable artists. There are sweet singers, clever comedians and skilful and graceful dancers. The inimitable George Wilson, of "Waltz Me Again," fame, will be one of the principal feature-makers, in addition to fifty other well known and capable burnt cork comedians. Watch for the big street parade at noon.

CORKSCREWS PLENTIFUL ON MISSOURI ROADS

GARNETT, Kan.—Elmer Curen and family were motoring over into Missouri when they had a blow-out and Elmer got out to change the tire. Picking a corkscrew from the tire he remarked: "I'll bet we are in Missouri! Sure enough they were—just over the State line."

About Far and Near Eye Glasses

Probably the greatest and most signal success in OPTICAL SCIENCE was the invention of BIFOCAL glasses—the combining of far and near lenses into one pair of glasses. The providing of glasses for distance and reading without the inconvenience of changing glasses.

Modern ingenuity has gone a step further. Far and near glasses can now be made whereby the reading lense is absolutely invisible; not the slightest evidence of the reading lense is apparent. Naturally the cost is more, as the manufacturing of these lenses is a secret and covered by a patent.

Far and near glasses are a real source of comfort and happiness, particularly to middle aged people and persons that need glasses for reading or other close work.

Come in and let us show you these glasses. Let us explain and demonstrate them to you. It will be a pleasure to do so.

Whatever your optical troubles may be, we can be of service to you. Our experience is of long standing. Our facilities are modern, and our work high class.

COUNTY RESISTS TO HOLD ANNUAL OUTING

Former Hancock county people who now reside in about Pittsburgh are preparing to hold an outing and basket picnic in Schenley Park in that city on September 25. The people of Weiritt Holiday's Cove, New Cumberland and Hancock county generally are invited to attend as it is the intention to organize at this meeting a Hancock county Society of Pittsburgh, which will meet from time to time social and to keep green the memory of old Hancock county days. A further information can be gained by communicating with Mrs. Blaine Smith Lawrence, 94 Bradford avenue, Crafon, phone 1009, J. Crafon or Mrs. Jamesella Wilson Ackenha, 3102 Landus street, Sheraden, phone Victor 249-W.

NEWELL MAN STILL REMAINS IN STUOR

No material change was noted May in the condition of J. R. Wharton of Jefferson street, who was stricken Sunday with a strange sleeping sickness from which the efforts of physicians have failed to bring him out. Wharton fell asleep Sunday afternoon about six o'clock. When a friend called to see him, members of the family were unable to awaken the man. Dr. H. A. Turk was summoned and following an examination, stated that he believed the cause of the stupor was a blood clot on the brain. Wharton has awakened several times since Sunday but only remained so for a few minutes at a time.

Gamblers Are Fined.

Squire Ferguson raised the pot $5 on the two alleged poker players arrested Sunday when they were brought before him Monday on a charge of gambling, following a raid on a card game on the hill near the East Liverpool-Newell bridge by Sheriff E. A. Cooper. Both defendants called the raise and were released.

Has Important News.

Miss Florence Moss, Hancock county Red Cross secretary, announced Monday that she had information of importance for the following men and would like to have them communicate with her at their earliest convenience: Joseph Jagille, Edward McHugh and P. Edward Brown.

Jagille's case was submitted to Miss Moss by the National Polish committee of America.

ANOTHER BOOST IN MILK PRICES HERE

To meet successive increases on the wholesale price of milk, retail milk prices in the East Liverpool district were boosted one cent on both pint and quart size Wednesday morning.

Decision to advance retail prices was reached at the meeting of the Retail Milk Dealers' association Tuesday night in chamber of commerce rooms. Milk dealers in East Liverpool, Chester, Newell and Wellsville attended the meeting. Under the new scale of prices, pint sizes are advanced from 8 to 9 cents and quart sizes from 15 to 16 cents. At the same time the wholesale price of milk to the producer advanced two cents for every cent advanced by the retail distributor.

To meet the one-cent loss on milk retail dealers agreed to place their business upon a strictly cash basis and will also adopt a system of rigid economy in labor. With the latest advance in prices, the total increase in prices granted the farmers for their product will amount to six cents, while the retailer has only increased its price to the consumer four cents, it was pointed out Wednesday.

Leetonia G. O. P. Rally.

Newly enfranchised women of Leetonia and vicinity will be guests of honor at a Republican rally in the Leetonia opera house Thursday evening, Sept. 9. Steps will be taken at the meeting to organize a women's Republican club.

A falcon's flight has been estimated to be 150 miles an hour.

Another East Liverpool Case

It Proves That There's a Way Out Many Suffering East Liverpool Folks.

Just another report of a cure in East Liverpool. Another typical case. Kidney ailments relieved in East Liverpool with Doan's Kidney Pills ask your neighbor.

C. S. Laughlin, insurance agent, 210 West Second street, East Liverpool, says: "I caught cold and it settled on my kidneys and from that work on I suffered with backache. A deal was such that it brought a made of strain on my back and it was steady, the trouble worse. I had back and dull ache in the small pains. I tried different remedies but with little or no relief, until I got hold of Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's quickly relieved me and I always helped me when I have had them."

LASTING RESULTS. Three years later Laughlin said: "I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as highly as ever. I have put my kidneys in order and I cared me of that awful backache. For three years now I have been in good health." 60c. at all dealers. Doan's, Buffalo, N.Y.

EAS END CITIZENS WORK ON RIVER ROAD

Today is "Good Road Day" in Beaver county. Hundreds of residents of Midland and other valley towns are armed with shovels, picks and other implements, helping get the various roads in the county in shape before the heavy rains of the fall. Considerable improvement will be made on the Midland-East Liverpool road between the state line and the mill town. Deep ruts in the roads will be filled in with truck lots of clinders and made passable. East Liverpool business men are co-operating with the residents of the valley in the move to make automobile travel between this city and Beaver Valley towns more inviting. Many manufacturing firms in the valley have donated material and automobile trucks to help the work along. It is expected that this effort will keep the roads in fair condition until the permanent improvement is made next spring, when it is planned to pave about 25 miles of road throughout the county.

WISCONSIN HAS BEST RECORD

State Adopts 21 Out of 30
Uniform Acts Submitted To Legislature.

CHICAGO, Sept. 1. — Wisconsin leads the states in the number of uniform acts that it has adopted as put forth by the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws, according to a summary by E. A. Gilmore of Madison, Wis., secretary of the conference.

Of 30 uniform acts submitted by the commissioners, Wisconsin has adopted 21. Massachusetts stands next with 12.

Wisconsin is also the first state to enact all the legislation relative to marriage and divorce drawn by the commissioners.

The uniform law which has been most favored is the negotiable instruments act. This has been adopted in all jurisdictions except Georgia and Porto Rico.

Two proposed uniform acts have not as yet been adopted by any state. They are the table of weights and measures and the insurance policies act.

More legislation dealing with marriage and divorce has been proposed than on any other subject. Action by states on these acts follows: Migratory divorce act adopted by none; divorce procedure act, adopted by Delaware; marriage license act, by Massachusetts; marriage evasion act, by Illinois, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Vermont; annulment of marriage and divorce act, by Delaware and New Jersey.

A uniform family desertion act has been adopted by Alabama, Kansas, North Dakota, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Vermont, West Virginia, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

The flag law submitted by the conference has been enacted in Arizona, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Washington and Wisconsin.

GRASSHOPPERS EAT
SWIMMER'S CLOTHES

SALINA, Kan.—It cost Clarence H. Mooney, of this place just $60 to take a swim in the Smoky Hill River—and it was paid in advance. Upon emerging from the water Mooney found instead of an expensive suit a bunch of rags, a silk shirt in shreds and a necktie in two strings. The ground was literally covered with grasshoppers, which had enjoyed a banquet at Mr. Mooney's expense.

SEWER PROGRAM NIPPED IN BUD

Inability of city officials either to sell bonds to pay the city's share in the improvements or to secure bids for construction work has checked progress on city council's sewer-laying program, it developed Wednesday. Service Director E. J. Smith advertised for bids for the laying of six-inch sanitary sewers on Fawcett street from Bradshaw avenue to Blakely street and on Trentvale and Waterloo streets from Moore to Peak streets. Not a single contractor filed a bid for the work.

Recently municipal bonds amounting to $20,000 to defray the city's share in the laying of a main line sewer from the Ohio river to Mulberry street were advertised at public sale. Not a purchaser for the bonds could be found.

CORD TIRES DIVIDE WEEK-END CONTEST

The Chester Cord Tire team divided the week-end games with Coshocton and New Comerstown, it has just been announced.

The first game of the series at New Comerstown ended with a 6 to 0 victory for the New Comerstown team. Going to Coshocton for a Sunday game the locals won by a score of 2 to 1. The contest is said to have been the best seen on the Coshocton grounds yet this season.

The New Comerstown game was locked until the sixth innings, neither team being able to score. However, in the sixth round the home club connected with several hits and coupled with costly errors, six runners were pushed over the plate. Not a Chester man got past second base.

SMART FROCK SEEN AT FRENCH RACES

The French races always bring out the smartest and most unusual frocks imaginable. Here is one seen recently at the Grand Prix. It is made of flame and Belgian blue brocade woven in one effect. The only trimming on this very simple but effective frock are the small buttons at the side fastening and on the sleeves.

CANADA HAS BUMPER CROP OF WHEAT THIS YEAR

WINNIPEG, Sept. 1.—With the harvest ending throughout Canada estimates of the wheat crop differ. Experts of the agricultural department of the Dominion government put the figure at 262,338,000 bushels. Last year's crop, according to final estimates, was 193,260,000 bushels. W. A. Black, of the Ogilvie Milling company, a crop authority, estimates a yield of from 225,000,000 to 250,000,000 bushels.

If the government estimate is correct the harvest will mean $566,338,520 in the pockets of Canada farmers if last year's prices are maintained. The fixed price last year was $2.15, but under its participation certificates system the wheat board recently paid the growers thirty cents a bushel ad- vanced will distribute ten cents a bushel more.

Though in the older communities the acreage to wheat was less than last year, much new acreage was brought into cultivation along the Canadian National Railway's trans-continental line where settlement is heavy. Government authorities minimize the effect of rust in the prairie provinces.

Japanese carpenters are now paid about 5 cents a day.

Hiding in the bushes along the roadside, they saw him coming down with a bundle under his arm. They captured him after a mile run and the bundle was found to contain two quarts of whiskey. He was placed in jail at Wellsburg charged with violation of the prohibition act.

Teacher Famine Threatened

Another teach famine threatens West Virginia this fall, according to State Superintendent of Schools M. P. Shawkey. He has advised school boards over the state to defer building new schools because of inability to obtain teachers. He blames low salaries paid teachers and higher wages paid in business and industries for the teacher shortage.

CARS PROVIDED TO SHIP GRAIN

Shipments From West Have Been Handicapped Recently By Car Shortage.

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—As results of advantageous lake freight rates now in effect on grain, President J. R. Howard, of the American Farm Bureau, predicted here today a substantial measure of relief from the car shortage in the middle west, greater ability of farmers to get grain to market, improved shipping from a number of lake ports, and slightly lower prices on grain in the east and for export than otherwise would have been the case.

He said he thought there was sufficient shipping available to handle all grain that farmers offered for lake transport.

The differential on lake and rail shipments from Chicago to New York, President Howard estimated, amounts to about two and one-fourth to two and three-fourth cents per bushel on wheat and corn, and one-half to three-fourth cents per bushel on oats, in favor of lake and rail shipments over all rail shipments.

The normal thing, he said, would be for the saving to be shared between producer and consumer. "The railroads of Chicago," Mr. Howard said, "have secured for us a statement of exactly what the new rates will be from Buffalo to New York. They are as follows:

Domestic—Wheat, 21.17; rye, 21.29; oats, 20.63; barley, 21.08; corn, 21.29.
Export—Wheat, 20.17; rye, 19.59; oats, 19.63; barley, 20.08; corn, 19.79.

"The domestic rates to Philadelphia and Baltimore will be the same. The export rates to Philadelphia and Baltimore will be one-half cent under the New York rate. The export rates to Boston will be the same as the New York rate.

"It is hoped that these new rates will result in the immediate resumption of increased lake shipping and thus release thousands of freight cars needed in other places.

"This should benefit not only many farmers who have not been able to get their grain to market and in some cases have not been able even to store it for lack of facilities, but it should benefit the country as a whole through measurably relieving the freight congestion.

"The trouble as regards rail congestion and grain rates has laid in a great measure between Chicago and Buffalo. Employment of the lake for this section of the trip to the Atlantic seaboard should do much to clear up the difficulties.

"These date back largely to the passage of the LaPollette bill a half a dozen years ago requiring the railroads to dispose of their lake vessels. When the railroads parted with their lake business, they at once took means to get it back.

"They were largely able to accomplish this so far as grain was concerned, by charging a smaller rate between Chicago and Buffalo than the water rate. This course drove shipments of grain off the lake onto the railroad track, for no one would prefer to pay more to ship by water to Buffalo than by rail.

"What the railroads lost by cutting the rate from Chicago to Buffalo—for it was service at less than cost—they made up by boosting the rate from Buffalo to New York. Whereas the rate from Chicago to Buffalo was 3.8 cents, from Buffalo to New York, which is 100 miles less, the rate was 10 cents per bushel. While diverting the lake traffic to rail they failed to enlarge the rail facilities between Chicago and Buffalo.

"When the American Farm Bureau Federation pointed out the injustice of this to the railroad men and their need of having the farmers, who supply the bulk of their business, with them instead of against them because of manifestly unfair tactics, the railroad men voluntarily agreed to make the readjustments in rates favoring water transportation which have just gone into effect.

"As a result the Interstate Commerce Commission has authorized the advance in grain rates on lake and rail shipment from New York to Buffalo of 30 per cent instead of 40 per cent on domestic traffic and 25 per cent instead of 40 per cent on export traffic."

SECONDS STEP INTO ARGUMENT

Nothing to It But Dempsey, Says Bill Tate—Mike Will Be Next Champion—Heinman.

By Frank G. Menke.
BENTON HARBOR, Mich., Sept. 1.—And now ladies and gentlemen, William Tate and John Heinman, sparring partners par excellence, step into the limelight and exude solemn words concerning their fastidiously chosen "I never was more confident of anything than that Billy Mike will knock out Jack Dempsey on Labor day," asserts Heinman who, as may be presumed, draws his pay from the Mike exchequer.

"Mike hits harder than Willard and faster than Jack Johnson. He has startled me by his speed—and fairly amazed me by his punching power. There's a snap to Mike's punching that Johnson lacked and Willard never knew. Anyway Mike is hitting faster than any man I ever saw in action and he's getting his 192 pounds into every drive for the jaw. I figure one of those drives is going to drop Dempsey for the long, long count."

In rebuttal are some words from "old reliable" Bill Tate, the giant negro who trained with Dempsey at Toledo and is reporting here for the Mike fight.

"This boy Dempsey is ringing all them there bells he used to ring in Toledo when he hit—and a few more too," asserts Bill. "I always thought that boy sorta reached the top of his punching power just before he fought that there Willard but I made a mistake. This boy is hitting harder than he ever did."

"Will Jack win on Labor day?—hum. Well in Toledo I bet all my pay on Jack to beat Willard. And in this fight—if I could find somebody to bet with—I'd bet all the money that I can earn in the next ten or fifteen years."

UNCLE SAM WINS OLYMPIAD BUT MAY BEAT HIMSELF IN FUTURE

Some of the American winners at the 1920 Olympics. Left to right, above: Richmond W. Landon, who broke high jump record, and Frank Loomis, winner of the 400 metre hurdle race. Below: Charles W. Paddock, winner of the 100 meter dash, and Pat Ryan, winner of the hammer throw.

With all track and field events in the Olympic games at Antwerp, Belgium, completed, America once more is returned an easy winner in the international meet. But the presence of American stars on the coaching staffs of five of the foreign countries in the games indicate that European nations have come to realize that they need U. S. methods and pep to beat the U. S. The work of these American coaches was noticeable in the records of these foreign squads. This means that the U. S. will face stiffer opposition in coming meets and must fight to hold its supremacy. Pat Ryan, Charles W. Paddock, Richmond Landon and Frank Loomis were four of the American stars in the games.

EDDIE FITZSIMMONS CHANGES HIS MIND

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Eddie Fitzsimmons, New York lightweight, today changed his mind regarding his possibilities of winning the world's championship and asked Tex Rickard, promoter, to relieve him of his engagement to fight Benny Leonard at Madison Square Garden this month. Fitzsimmons' manager pleaded that the young scrapper needs more experience before entering the ring with a man of Leonard's calibre. Rickard declared today that both Leonard and Fitzsimmons have a dislike for the match. He probably will agree to release Fitzsimmons and select some other fighter as Leonard's opponent.

McKEESPORT FOOTBALL TEAM SEEKING GAMES

"The Crimson football team of McKeesport will be on the field the coming season with one of the best light heavyweight elevens that has ever represented the city," says Manager G. W. Hill in a communication here.

"The Crimson originated in 1913. Since that time they have won 94 games, lost six and tied four. There are positively no college men on the squad. The McKeesporters are compelled to play all games away from home this season as Lovatt field, the gridiron, is covered with gas derricks. Would like to arrange Saturday or Sunday games with East Liverpool's best teams. Please answer as soon as possible. Write to George W. Hill, 1329 Walnut street, McKeesport, Pa."

LAST MONTH OF BASEBALL YEAR

Chicago and Brooklyn Are Leading Major Leagues But Are Closely Followed By Rivals.

By H. C. HAMILTON.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Baseball in the major leagues today entered the last month of the 1920 campaign. Seasons in each league end on Oct. 3, but approximately thirty days of play are left.

No gap has been opened for any bidding leader in either organization.

In the American league exactly ten points separate the first three teams, Chicago, Cleveland and New York in the order named. In the National league Brooklyn tops the Cincinnati average by two points, the Dodgers having slipped ahead yesterday while the Reds were losing. The Giants lost some ground through another loss to Pittsburgh, which suddenly is beginning to make things appear that it is not yet out of the battle.

Cleveland's work at Washington gives every indication that those who counted the Indians out have another guess yet to make. The Clevelanders, with Speaker back in good form, have been playing better ball than either the Yankees or White Sox in the last few days and are gradually making up lost ground.

HIGH GRID MEN ARE CALLED OUT

Manager Robert Goodwin Issues Call for First Meet Thursday—Geo. W. Woodman, Coach, Expected Soon.

In anticipation of the arrival here within the next few days of George W. Woodman, graduate of Colgate university, who will coach the 1920 East Liverpool high school football squad, Robert H. Goodwin, manager of this season's eleven, has called a meeting of all eligibles to be held at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening in room 16 of the high school building. Prof. Woodman will take charge of the chemistry classes at the high school he in addition to his duties as manager of the gridiron squad. He comes well recommended as an athlete and it is believed, will be able to turn out a championship eleven this year.

Manager Goodwin and Captain Carl McCune ask that all members of last year's team who will be eligible to play this season and all new men who expect to try for berths with the squad turn out for Thursday night's meet. The squad will take steps toward perfecting an organization and plans discussed for the opening practice.

Prover Cleveland Alexander did not still the Phillies to any great extent. They patted him freely and beat the Cubs 3 to 0.

The Athletics and Tigers had fifteen innings of matinee, quitting with the score an 8 to 8 tie.

Joe Bush was responsible for another tumble of the White Sox. The champions were beaten, 7 to 3.

OIL ANTIDOTE FOR SNAKE BITES

FORT WORTH, — Joe Todd, 12, son of a ranchman near here, owes his life to quick thinking and kerosene. Struck by a huge rattlesnake, the boy made a bee-line for a coal-oil tank and, thrusting his right leg, which contained the wound, under the spigot, turned on the oil. The unique remedy offset all effects of the reptile's fangs.

The Pirates waited until the seventh and then opened an attack that netted six runs, defeating the Giants, 6 to 5.

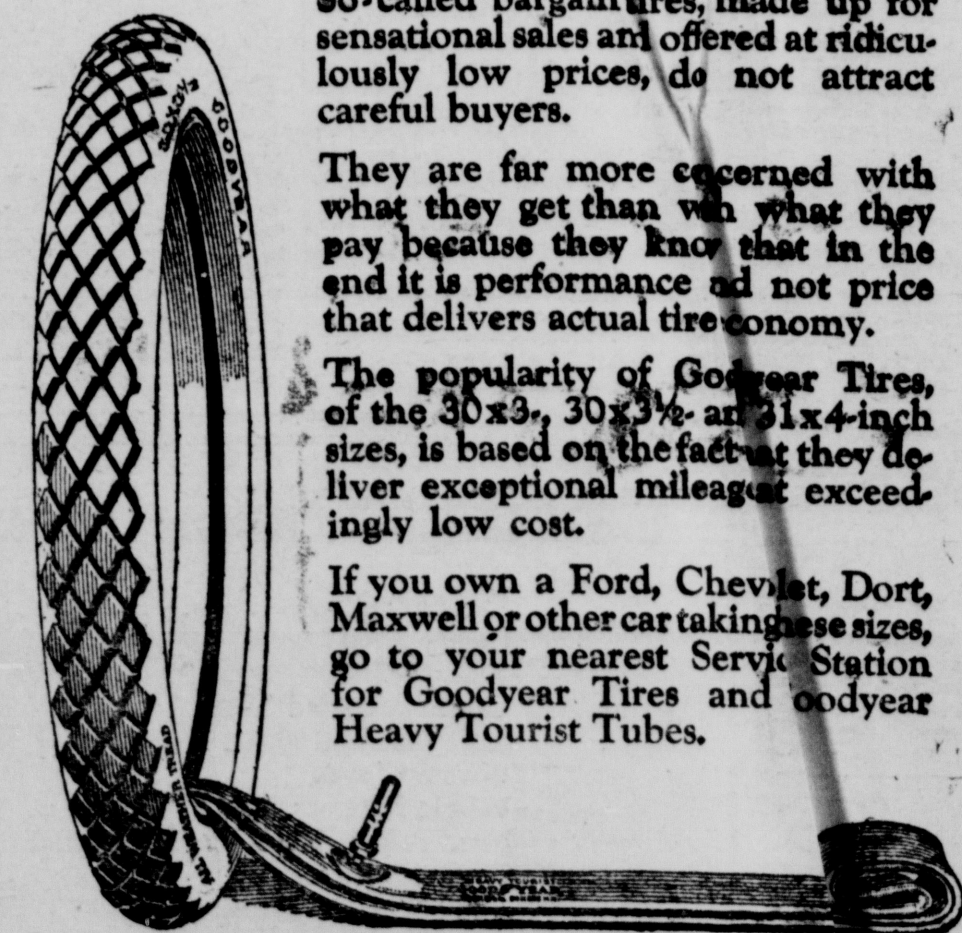

A heave into left field by Ruel, Yankee catcher, tells what happened to the Yanks. The Browns licked 'em, 5 to 2.

Three singles in the tenth inning by the Braves slid the Reds out of the National league lead. They lost 3 to 1.

Jeff Pfeiffer won his ninth straight game when the Dodgers crushed the Cardinals, 5 to 2.

The Economy of Using Goodyear Small Car Tires

So-called bargain tires, made up for sensational sales and offered at ridiculously low prices, do not attract careful buyers.

They are far more concerned with what they get than with what they pay because they know that in the end it is performance and not price that delivers actual tire economy.

The popularity of Goodyear Tires, of the 30x3, 30x3 1/2 and 31x4 inch sizes, is based on the fact that they deliver exceptional mileage at exceedingly low cost.

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or other car taking these sizes, go to your nearest Service Station for Goodyear Tires and Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes.

30 x 3 1/2 Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread $23.50

30 x 3 1/2 Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread $21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes no more than the price you are as to pay for tubes of less merit—why?—costly casings when such sure protection is available? 30 x 3 1/2 size $1.50 in waterproof bag

PAPERS CAN RULE ELECTION

Journalist Instructor Points Out Part Which Periodicals Can Take In Politics.

COLUMBIA, Mo., Sept. 1.—This presidential campaign will be won by the circulation of newspapers and not by the circulation of money, Talcott Williams, director and organizer in its opening years of the school of journalism founded by Joseph Pulitzer in the Columbia University, said here today. Mr. Williams spoke at the dedication of the Jay H. Neff Hall of the school of journalism in the University of Missouri.

"Two score years ago the newspaper still waited for its issues on parties and public men," Mr. Williams said, "the world has changed. The many rule. The newspaper furnishes the only universal reading of the many. The newspaper no longer waits on men or on parties."

Mr. Williams himself, one of the oldest and best known newspaper men in the country, took for his theme—"The newspaper man's new task."

"The newspaperman has become the watchman of the republic on the walls of the future," he said. "The new home of the school of journalism in the University of Missouri we dedicate today is the Watch tower of Journalism in which the watchmen of the State will be trained."

"Those who go out from this building will accurately chronicle yesterday, they will shape, record and reveal the public opinion of the day, they will instruct society in the great school of the newspaper, they will share in the leadership of parties and of political movements."

"Two journalists are today the candidates for president, named by their two parties which divide the destiny of the Republic. For years, as editors and proprietors, they have not only been printing the news of the day, but considering the broad future of affairs as no men do in any other calling."

"The newspaper man's new duty is to foresee the future and its issues, to prepare the public for them and like the prophets of old, to be watchmen on the walls of our Israel."

News is standardized today, Mr. Williams said. "The newspaper in the war just over had conspicuously outstripped organized news. 'Local news of the lesser routine order takes less space,' he added."

"Penetration, the gift of expression, the unfeeling instinct alike for the interest and the interests not of the few but of the many," Mr. Williams said, "will be needed more than ever by constructive journalism. It will not suffice for the trained man merely to know news and edit news, but to understand news; to be able to unravel financial riddles; to know where the facts can be obtained; to appreciate their influence upon public opinion and to guide public opinion into wise channels by being wiser than the opinion of the many."

WOMEN NOT AFRAID TO TELL THEIR AGES
TOPEKA, Kan.,—Less than 1 per cent of the 29,000 men and women who registered here this Summer for the fall elections refused to tell their exact age, according to the election commissioners. The state law provides that one may register "21 plus." When Mrs. Margaret Hill McCarter, prominent writer, protested to the Attorney-General when refused permission to register because she would not tell her exact age, the attorney-general ruled that women could not say they were over the legal age. Fourteen men and 157 men declined to tell their ages.

WILL IMPROVE BURIAL GROUND

Congregation of the Clarkson Presbyterian Church Take Steps to Care for Cemetery—Association is Formed.

BY M. K. ZIMMERMAN

CLARKSON, Aug. 31.—Rural cemeteries as a general rule are unkempt and where brush grows wild. Not near as much care is taken in the upkeep of these burial places as was done many years ago. At times it appears that interest in the country cemetery has been lost.

An immediate effort is to be made to bring the cemetery of the Presbyterian church here "up-to-date". Brush is to be cut away. In fact, it is proposed to place the burial ground under "perpetual care" and the ball has been started rolling.

Following the regular services in the Presbyterian church here last Sunday afternoon there was a congregational meeting which was attended by a number who reside in other parts of the county.

Then was formed the Clarkson Cemetery Association. Ideas had been worked out in advance, and it did not take very long to put the plan over.

Officers of the new association are: President, Harry Warlick; vice president, Clyde Gibson; secretary-treasurer, J. C. Gaston.

A committee to draft a constitution and by-laws consists of Harry McCammon of near Lisbon and Probate Judge Samuel W. Crawford.

The board of directors includes the officers and T. J. Costello, and Dr. E. C. Louthan.

Another meeting will be held September 19 when the organization will be completed. The Rev. Carl Brown, pastor of the Presbyterian church, has launched the movement.

The Association has been advised that some who have relatives and friends buried in the Clarkson cemetery will offer endowments. A nominal charge per year is also to be made to keep burial lots in "condition."

The Clarkson Presbyterian church was formed in the spring of 1889. Members were those who formerly formed a part of the Presbyterian congregation at Middle Beaver. When the congregation "split" a part established a church in Madison township.

Among the early members of the Presbyterian church here were the families of John McCammon, James W. Gaston, Joseph Steel, John G. Gaston, Matthew Lyon, Hugh Gaston, Mathias Shirts, William Steel, James Provines, Hugh Sebring, Morgan W. Lyon, Elizabeth Knight, Morgan W. Cammon, Mary Keep and Nancy McCammon, and Mary Keep.

A frame meeting house was built that year just a little south of Clarkson, and on ground given for that purpose by Thomas Ashton and George Feazle. A part of this ground was also to be used for cemetery purposes. This church was used until 1877 when it was replaced by the present church building, which was built under the direction of Daniel G. Souder, T. J. Conkle and P. Gaston.

The Rev. William O. Stratton served as pastor of the congregation until 1834, and after a lapse of several odd years he was succeeded by the Rev. William Dalzell.

Among the other ministers who followed at this church were the Rev. Wm. D. McCartney, Thomas McDermott, John B. Graham, R. Lewis, Wm. Reed, Robert Armstrong, George Johnson, J. R. Miller, W. Gaston, J. R. Dundas and J. N. Wilson.

BEDFORD CHINA FINISHES KILN

Company Makes No Attempt to Change Lines Owing to Mass of Unfilled Orders.

The new kiln at the Bedford China company has been completed, and production has started. No attempt to make new lines with this added improvement will be made at this time, according to officials of the company, because the entire plant is still required to fill back orders. New business continues to come in from all parts of the country for standard lines which are being distributed through the Brown-Reddrop company of Cleveland.

$1,000 For Dinner Set

An offer has been received by the Hopewell China Co., of Hopewell, Va., of $1,000 for the first dinner set completed. Concerning this new plant the Petersburg "Evening Progress" says: "At present eight of the kilns are ready for use, which are sufficient to take care of an output of 36,000 pieces of ware per day. This plant is the only one of its kind in America which has installed crude oil burners in their kilns in lieu of coal or natural gas. With the oil burners a kiln can be fired at a much smaller cost than either coal or gas and the necessity of delaying the firing of kilns on account of severe winter weather is overcome.

"The oil being used at this time is crude oil from the Kentucky fields, which is in a reasonable hauling distance of the plant, and tanks have been installed which will take care of six months' supply of fuel or approximately 200,000 gallons of oil.

That the company is prepared to run without interruption on account of shortage in raw materials can readily be seen from the fact that the company has no possible embargo on the railroads will not interfere with them, as they will be able to ship the finished product out by water.

The demand for chinaware is so great at this time that the company can dispose of its entire stock for the next three years in the South, without a single salesman in the field and, in fact, now have bids for more ware than they can manufacture."

Start Publicity Campaign

The Clay Products Association, with which many brick and sewer pipe manufacturers in this part of Ohio are affiliated, have commenced a publicity campaign of education to create an increased use for sewer pipe. The Association announced that the statistics it has gathered in Kansas City, Mo., show 20,000 odd houses not connected with trunk sewers. Results are being obtained.

Flower Pots Valuable

A writer observes: "It is also possible to use a flower pot for keeping things cool. This is used as one of those Mexican pottery coolers is used. It is soaked for three or four minutes in cool water, and then inverted over whatever is to be kept cool. It should be kept in a place where there is a good current of air, and the evaporation keeps whatever is under it cool.

Of course a flower pot can be used only to keep a small amount of anything cool, for it is small. But a pat of butter can be kept under a flower pot and so could a small jar of cream or milk. It is really just the same principle that we make use of in cooling things under a flower pot as the one that is made use of in the big porous pottery coolers that are used in the tropics. And that is that evaporation reduces temperature.
